SISTERS KEEPING THE COVENANT WOMEN'S GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Purpose

Sisters Keeping the Covenant is a ministry of restoration and healing for all women and teen girls. This ministry purposes to provide opportunities for women for holistic healing, teaching women and teens spiritual principles and precepts for abundant and victorious Christian living, and to provide Christian fellowship that leads to spiritual and personal growth, and allows women the unique opportunity of sharing each others' joys, caring for the needs of family, church, and community and of bearing one another's burdens. Further, these opportunities will be provided through the presentation of Seminars and Conferences for women and teens as well as other special events and programs. Also, Sisters Keeping the Covenant is available to assist others in the establishing of ministries for women as well as makes itself available to bring conferences and other ministry events for women to local churches and to other formalized ministry groups and settings. Sisters Keeping the Covenant is an extension of God's love and healing mercies to all women.
